

The UNC Charlotte School of Nursing is currently recruiting for multiple open positions. Our School of Nursing prepares excellent, well-qualified professional nurses for positions locally, nationally and internationally. Our graduates practice in a variety of settings including community health agencies, home health care, advanced practice settings such as clinics, and acute care settings usually found in hospitals and medical centers.

UNC Charlotte is a public research university with three campuses: Charlotte Research Institute Campus, Center City Campus and the main campus, located in University City. It is the largest institution of higher education in the Charlotte region. Home to 29,710 students, UNC Charlotte offers 75 bachelors, 65 masters and 23 doctoral programs. The School of Nursing offers undergraduate, graduate and doctoral programs, as well as multiple post-masters certificate programs.

If you are interested in learning more about the following positions, we invite you to apply.

Assistant/Associate Professor

Professor/Associate Professor

Sincerely,

Dena Evans, EdD, MPH, MSN, RN, CNE, CNL
Director, School of Nursing